

Collie race weekend goes social

The weekend of the 28th-29th March is Collie weekend. This event promise to a great mini break from the hustle and bustle of the city. The weekend will consist of some serious fun on the track in parallel with a social day out for club members not partaking in the racing.

To book this weekend away contact the Collie Ridge Motel and mention that you are a member of the Porsche Club and that you'd like to book one of the rooms tentatively booked under Darren Bouwer's name.

The weekend will kick off with a gourmet BBQ at the Collie Ridge Motel (Friday night). On Saturday the drivers will head off to the track and the other members wishing to join the social event will depart from the Collie Racetrack at 11am on their day out to the Hackersley Wine Estate in the Ferguson Valley. In the evening members will get together for a scrumptious dinner at the motel.

RSVP essential for all three events. RSVP to Darren and Sonja Bouwer by email (socialevents@porscheclubwa.com) or phone 0437730230. When you RSVP please state which events you will be attending. The Three events are;

- 1) Friday night gourmet BBQ at Collie Ridge Motel
- 2) Saturday day out to Hackersley Restaurant in the Ferguson Valley (approx cost $35)
Dress: Casual
- 3) Saturday night dinner at the Collie Ridge Motel Restaurant

Collie Ridge Motel

Tel: 08 9734 6666

Address: 185-195 Throssell Street, Collie

Website: <http://www.collieridgemotel.com.au/>

Discounted rate per night: Single room

(1 person) $100

Twin share (2 people per room) $120

Discounted rate only for a limited number of rooms until 1 March.

